Philippians 1:6
Pastor Riley Manzo

ICE BREAKER QUESTION:

Are you the type of person that starts multiple projects at once, or focuses on one project to it's full completion?

HEAD

These questions will help us understand what the scripture teaches (who God is, what He's done, who we are, and how we should live).

- 1) What stood out to you in this section of scripture or from Sunday's sermon?
- 2) What is the "good work" that Paul is referring to in Philippians 1:6? How can Paul be confident that God would continue His work in the Philippians' lives?

HEART

These questions will be geared towards shaping our hearts in light of the gospel. Our goal will be to align what we know with what we believe in our hearts.

- 3) When do you tend to forget the good work that God is doing in your life (i.e when things are going well, when things are difficult, when life is hectic, etc.)? How can you continually be reminded of the good things that God is doing in your life no matter the season?
- 4) God promises to bring His good work to completion in our lives. How does this truth encourage you during this season?

HANDS

This question will be geared towards us responding to the passage by allowing the Holy Spirit to change the way that we live.

- 5) What is one thing that you are going to do after studying this passage? Is there a promise to claim, a pattern of thinking to change, or a situation to entrust into God's care? Invite the work of the Holy Spirit into your life this week as you yield to Him.
