Psalm 121

Pastor Nate Holdridge

ICE BREAKER QUESTION:

If you could hike anywhere in the world, where would it be?

HEAD

These questions will help us understand what the scripture teaches (who God is, what He's done, who we are, and how we should live).

- 1) What stood out to you in these verses or from Sunday's sermon?
- 2) What does it mean that the Lord is our keeper? In what ways does He keep us according to the Psalmist?

HEART

These questions will be geared towards shaping our hearts in light of the gospel. Our goal will be to align what we know with what we believe in our hearts.

- 3) The Psalmist looked up to "the hills" as he sought help. These "hills" can represent sources other than God we look to for help. What are some of the hills you look to for help? How do these fall short of providing the safety and comfort that God brings?
- 4) How have you experienced God's help during this season? Which promise of God's character from this Psalm have you witnessed in your life recently?

HANDS

This question will be geared towards us responding to the passage by allowing the Holy Spirit to change the way that we live.

- 5) What is one thing that you are going to do after studying this passage? Is there a promise to claim, a pattern of thinking to change, or a situation to entrust into God's care? Invite the work of the Holy Spirit into your life this week as you yield to Him.
