Micah 3:1-4:5

Pastor Nate Holdridge

ICEBREAKER QUESTION: Who or what has given you hope in this past week?

HEAD

These questions will help us understand what the scripture teaches (who God is, what He's done, who we are, and how we should live).

- 1) What stood out to you in this section of scripture or from Sunday's sermon?
- 2) What are the main accusations Micah makes against the leaders of Israel in Micah 3:1-12, and how do they contrast with the future vision of God's kingdom in Micah 4:1-5?

HEART

These questions will shape our hearts in light of the gospel. Our goal will be to align what we know with what we believe in our hearts.

- 3) Considering the stark contrast between the present corruption and the future hope in Micah's prophecy, how does this tension impact your longing for God's kingdom, both now and in the future?

Going Deeper: How does this longing for God's kingdom affect your perception of leadership and justice in your own context?

HANDS

This question will be geared towards us responding to the passage by allowing the Holy Spirit to change how we live.

- 4) How can you personally commit to walking "in the name of the LORD our God forever and ever" in your daily life, as encouraged in Micah 4:5?

Prayer Application: Pray for the residents, clients, staff, and board of Set Free Monterey Bay, a local non-profit that runs a safe house for survivors of sex trafficking in Monterey County (setfreemontereybay.org).
